Rural Mail Box
Clean-Up Week
To Start Today

Patrons On Rural Routes Asked
By Postal Department To Repair Boxes

Starting today, and continuing throughout the entire week, an effort will be made by residents on rural routes to put their mail boxes in first class shape.

This move is being made in order that the delivery of mail to the rural routes of the vicinity may be expedited. According to Edward McBride, superintendent of the Mahoningtown Post Office, a number of old type boxes are still in use on R. D. 8 and as these are not approved by the post office department they should be replaced with more modern boxes.

McBride states that when rural patrons are placing their boxes by the road, they should take care they are of a uniform height in order that the mail carrier can reach them without too much unnecessary effort.

In this movement, it is the desire of the postal department to encourage all rural mail patrons generally to possess pride in their boxes in the manner of erection, neat stenciling and tidy appearances.

New Brighton Girl
Wins Scholarship

Four County Council Meets At Ambridge; Elects New President

Miss Agnes Ellen Swain, of New Brighton, was awarded the Sallie Homer scholarship of $100 at the meeting of the Four-County council, American Legion auxiliary, held at Ambridge. Miss Swain, who was among eight applicants, will attend the Grace Martin Secretarial school, Pittsburgh.

The council convened in the Methodist Episcopal church. At the afternoon session the following officers were elected:

Mrs. Helen Kenney, Rhon Valley, president; Mrs. G. C. Eklon and Mrs. M. Wilson, New Castle, vice-presidents; Miss Jesse Sander, Rochester, secretary; Mrs. Ethel Baird, Ellwood City, treasurer; Mrs. Matilda Farrell, historician; Mrs. Helen Deffenderfer, Greenville, chaplain; and Mrs. Esther Codd, Sharon, sergeant-at-arms.

The retiring president, Mrs. S. R. Berstler, Ellwood, will represent the council at the Saratoga convention with Mrs. Kenney as alternate.

Mrs. James B. Casey, Philadelphia, who is a candidate for the office of president of the Pennsylvania American Legion auxiliary, was the principal speaker at the afternoon meeting. Joseph Clere, a past commander of the Ambridge Legion post and Beaver county and state chairman of Boy Scout work, spoke in the morning.

COUNCIL CONFERS
ON EMPLOYMENT

something happens, the single men will be cut off and the married couples placed on the list in the four counties.

Todd next told of a meeting with the Workers Alliance Friday and said he had agreed to send their request for an increase in the quota to Harbison. He said he would explain that this being an industrial section, a larger quota was necessary. He said he favored councilman aid.

Peters said that in Lawrence county we have 4,561 people working, and the quota is 4,620. Of this number 885 are women employed on the sewing project. He said the local WPA would like to increase the number, but could not change instructions received from Harbison.

Local Citizens on Local Projects. Councilman Dunlap said he favored local citizens working on local projects. Peters reminded Dunlap that many city people are working on projects throughout the county. Peters informed Dunlap that the quota placed by Harbison is based on the number of people on relief.

Todd said that the Workers Alliance had suggested an increase of 1,000 in the Lawrence county quota and it was following this statement that Dunlap submitted his motion, which was seconded by Councilman J. D. Alexander and amended to ask the Lawrence county commissioners to support the city's plea.

Todd said the action was a very good move. Elmer Klingensmith, president of the Workers Alliance (ranked council for the action and then suggested a conference between the city council, WPA officials and the Workers Alliance to prepare projects for next winter to keep men at work.

A motion to this effect was offered by Councilman J. D. Alexander, was seconded by Councilman J. Myron Rice.

After this motion, like Dunlap had passed unanimously, Sam Reed appeared before council. Just when he attempted to address council, Councilman Alexander, addressing Reed, inquired:

"Are you an American citizen?" adding that, before Reed would be permitted to address the body he first would be required to submit proof of such.

Reed said "I am a citizen and work on the WPA."

Carries Passport. The officials of the local WPA were asked if Reed is a citizen. "He carries an American passport," Peters told council.

Reed then asserted that a clerk in Lawrence county courthouse had deprived him becoming a voter.

"Because you are not a citizen," Dunlap exclaimed.

"I have my final papers. They refused to register me," Reed replied. "I offer a motion he be refused permission to speak," said Alexander. "Free speech is allowed," Reed replied.

President Klingensmith was questioned as to Reed's status in the organization and said Reed is a trustee.

VOTERS OF SIX STATES
WILL SETTLE PRIMARY
BATTLES DURING WEEK

White House for his leadership job. The belief obtains in Washington, and is held by those who accompanied Mr. Roosevelt on his recent visit to the state, that Barkley will win. That belief, however, is qualified by many ifs, ands, and buts. Chandler has a well-oiled and efficient state machine, which is working its head off for the governor. Against it is the federal machine, backed by some 70,000 Kentuckians who are on WPA relief rolls. Ugly charges have been made on both sides as to the "corruption" and "use" of federal and state employees in this hectic campaign.

Five Other States Battle

Before Kentucky ballots the last of the week, however, five other states will afford an insight into the political trend. Four of these—Kansas, Missouri, Virginia and West Virginia—vote tomorrow. Then comes Tennessee on Thursday.

There may be considerable fireworks in Tennessee, where Gov. Gordon Browning and National Committeeman Ed Crump, the boss of Memphis, are engaged in a spectacular and extremely bitter fight for political control of the state and backing different horses in the Democratic senatorial race. Browning is supporting Senator "Marble" Berry, who was once an ardent New Dealer, but who has soured on the administration. Berry is now serving in the senate. Crump, however, is supporting Senator Kenneth McKellar, an ardent New Dealer. There are several other candidates.

Gov. Browning has mobilized troops for his "invasion" of the Crump stronghold in Memphis this week. In Tennessee as in Kentucky, ugly charges have been made as to the "use" of federal and state employees by the battling factions.

The Senate campaign fund investigating committee recently reported that on the evidence before it, "every scheme and questionable device that can be used to cause funds and influence the voters. The aftermath of this may be a political scandal of no small proportions following the voting on Thursday. Capital politicians understand that whoever wins in the Tennessee struggle may be challenged after the November election.

Tennessee Battle Rough

This Tennessee fight has been so rough and so tough that the national administration has, extensively, kept hands off. President Roosevelt passed through Memphis several weeks ago, but his schedule was so jammed as to leave for no appearance and no speeches. His train stopped through Tennessee at night. However, it is well understood that no New Dealer will be elected if Senator Berry is re-elected, notwithstanding that he was originally appointed with the acquiescence of the White House and the fact Berry headed up labor's non-partisan league, which supported Mr. Roosevelt in 1936.

The contests in Kentucky and Tennessee provide the highlight of the week's balloting, although there are interesting contests in some of the other states.

Kansas Battle

In Kansas the forces are principally Republicans and Democrats. The Republicans are for a change. The Rev. Gerald B. Winrod, who has been called "The Kansas Hitler," is making a prodigious effort to capture the Republican senatorial nomination.

there, in order to oppose Senator George McGill, the incumbent Democrat, in November. Winrod has been repudiated and denounced by Republican National Chairman John Hamilton. He is opposed by ex-Gov. Clyde Reed, Dallas Knapp, a veteran state legislator, and the Rev. Jesse C. Fisher, a Methodist minister, who is ardently anti-New Deal.

In Missouri, also tomorrow, the expectation is that Senator Bennett Champ Clark will be re-nominated, despite the opposition of several opponents who are "100 per cent New Dealers." Clark was one of the leaders against President Roosevelt's court program, and opposed numerous other New Deal legislation. There is a tight race between the Democratic state administration in Missouri, headed by Gov. Lloyd Stark and the Pro-Security organization in Kansas City, but it is accounted but little national significance.

Virginia Battle

Virginia, which also ballots tomorrow, presents but one real New Deal contest, in the eighth congressional district, Washington. There, 32-year-old Wm. E. Dodd, Jr., son of the former ambassador to Germany is seeking to unseat Rep. Howard W. Smith, a four-term, whose record on the New Deal, especially without legislation, is exceedingly vulnerable. Dodd is running as a 100 per cent New Dealer, and is thought not likely known in Virginia has put on a strenuous campaign.

West Virginia's primary promises to be quiet, with little of national interest involved.

In all of this balloting this week, the Democratic leadership is intensely interested—but viewing it from afar.

Mr. Roosevelt struck his blow for Senator Barkley. Then he went on a long fishing cruise. As for national chairman Jim Farley, he departed some days ago for Alaska, which is about the furthest point north that he could go to escape the interminable state in the party.

Streamlined Fliers In Wreck East Of Toledo, O. Last Night

Three Persons Seriously Hurt

Thirty-Two Taken To Hospitals Immediately After Rear-End Crash

WRECK CREWS CLEAR UP LINES

TOLEDO, O., Aug. 1.—Wreck crews today cleared the right of way of the New York Central railroad at Rocky Ridge 19 miles east of Toledo, where last night the road's crack Chicago-to-New York Commodore Vanderbilt rammed into the rear end of the Mercury, another streamlined flyer.

Of the 32 persons who were taken to hospitals in Toledo, Port Clinton, and Cleveland, three remained in serious condition today. They were:

L. M. Osborne, 46, Evanston, Ill., neck and other injuries, required a blood transfusion during the night.

Mrs. H. B. Haggerty, 46, of Winneke, Ill., suffering from internal injuries, and George Morris, 48, New York, internal injuries.

Both were in St. Vincent's hospital here. In the same hospital were seven other passengers from the Mercury. A three-year-old child, Eleanor McDonald, of Seaside, N. Y., was in Flower hospital here with slight injuries.

Eight members of the two train crews were in Pool hospital, Port Clinton. Four Mercury passengers and eight other crew members were in Cleveland Lutheran hospital, and two other passengers were in other Cleveland hospitals.

First Train Had Stopped
The accident occurred at 7:30 p. m. The Mercury, enroute from Detroit to Cleveland and traveling at 85 miles an hour, pulled to a stop when members of the crew thought the train had struck an automobile.

The train was reversed for about three feet, while crew members attempted to find the "wrecked car." Then the Commodore Vanderbilt, on its way to New York, traveling about 100 miles behind the first streamliner, appeared in view.

E. C. Callan of Sandusky, engineer of the Commodore Vanderbilt, said he applied the brakes the instant he saw black signals were set ahead. Then flagmen from the Mercury were several hundred yards behind the stopped train, attempting frantically to flag the second train to a stop.

The train skidded on the slippery tracks. Callan said, and was traveling between 10 and 15 miles an hour when it struck the observation car of the Mercury. That car and another coach on the Mercury were derailed, and did not overturn.

Allege Driver Of Auto Intoxicated

Chief of Police Ralph A. Criswell stated today he would prefer a charge of operating an auto while intoxicated against Dewey Rineham, who was arrested at 1 a. m. Sunday by officers Elmer, Nelson and Hagan in Cedar street.

The officers claim they saw the car weaving in Mahoning avenue and followed it to Cedar street. Clyde Rineham, who was in the car, was arrested on a charge of intoxication.

FINDS HIS HORSE

GREENVILLE, Pa., Aug. 1.—Col. E. Perrine of Five Points, near Jackson Center, went out to his pasture this morning to look for his horse, and found that it had been shot and killed.

He reported it to the sheriff's office in Mercer, and an investigation is being made.

A great leader is like an umpire. If he makes a bad decision, he must stick to it to save his prestige.

Short Talks On Advertising

Prepared by the Bureau of Research and Education, Advertising Federation of America

CULTURE ON THE PAYROLL

NUMBER 5

Contrary to the impression among many scholars, culture in this world is absolutely dependent upon economic prosperity. It was no accident that the Periclean Age came at a time when ancient Greece was very prosperous and had established a thousand trading posts in all parts of the civilized world. When her commercial prosperity died out, the culture of Greece was at an end too.

The great Augustan period of Roman literature flowered when the Roman Empire enjoyed its peak of commercial prosperity and collapsed when the economic system collapsed. The same was true with the Italian Renaissance, that golden period of art and culture. When material riches of business failed to sustain it, the creative period of culture was at an end. After all, artists must eat and must have leisure time to do their work.

At every age in history it was the material wealth of industry that stimulated and supported cultural pursuits. As a result, culture today is most widespread in those lands where industry is most productive. America has been fortunate in this respect, due to our highly efficient business system with its mass production and modern advertising.

In the United States we have had 150 years of unparalleled productivity. With only seven per cent of the world's population living here, we have produced one-half of all the wealth on this globe. That is why, in these same 150 years, we have been able to build more schools and colleges than all the rest of the world combined. Culture in America is a thing for the masses. Over 30,000,000 students are registered in our educational institutions.

Among the greatest media for disseminating culture in this country are newspapers, magazines, and radio, in all of which we lead the world. The combined circulation of the 13,000 periodicals and newspapers included in the Census is over 300,000,000 — nearly ten for every family. There are 700 broadcasting stations in the United States and 80 per cent of all families own radios.

These great instruments of education and culture in our country are supported chiefly by revenue from advertising. The amount readers pay for most newspapers and magazines represents only a portion of their actual cost, and for radio broadcasts we pay nothing at all. Thus the very finest in literature, art, and music is provided for the people without cost, as a by-product of the efficient working of our commercial system.

Advertising does much more for culture besides supporting the bulk of our printed publications and radio broadcasts. Our entire economic prosperity is linked up with advertising, which is an indispensable part of the important process of large-scale selling without which our modern industries could not operate and could not support present-day cultural activities. Advertising helps to bring down the cost of the things necessary to a civilized existence and popularizes culture itself.

In many ways, advertising subsidizes education for the masses and stimulates people with the necessary desire to attain a higher level of culture.

Mrs. Rebecca McKee, clerk in the probate court, is enjoying a vacation. Miss Alice Reese, clerk, who has been away on a vacation, is back at her desk.

County commissioners have completed arrangements for having the court house painted as a WPA project, as soon as the matter can be put through the regular channels. The exterior will be painted and the massive stone columns on the front porch will be sandblasted. These columns were painted once, and it cost the county several hundred dollars to have the paint taken off. Painted stone columns make the pillars ashamed of themselves.

At least four house movers have notified their intention of putting in bids for the removal of some houses on the right of way of the new road at Hillsville. It is expected that the bids will be opened tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Temple Boyd of the Youngstown road, conferred with the county commissioners on Saturday, relative to damages to their property, caused by the widening of the road. No definite agreement was reached as the commissioners wish to look over the situation again.

Register and Recorder Oleville Potter is making a very good record in keeping his books up to date, especially in the matter of transcribing wills on the record books. It is now possible to find a will on the books a day or two after it has been left for probate.

Just so the new pupils in the law library and judges office don't try to put on airs, a steam roller is being ing passed over them by the workmen engaged in putting them down. The carpets are so thick that there were some rough looking seams after it had been sewed, but the steam roller has made the carpet look like a dude's newly pressed pants.

With the closing of the county treasurer's books this evening the time limit on paying county and mercantile taxes, less five per cent discount, expires. From now until September 1, taxes must be paid at their face. After September 1 the duplicates will be placed in the hands of collectors and a penalty added.

Parole Officer Jack M. Dunlap received word of a disastrous fire at the Ellwood Home for boys in Erie county, which has several inmates from Lawrence county. Horse and cattle barns and some other buildings were destroyed entailing a loss of about $35,000. Fortunately all the cattle were saved. The home comprises 200 acres, a big main building, two dormitories, school, laundry and other buildings.

In the estate of Frank Miliken, also known as F. Frank Miliken, late of Ellwood City, a joint will executed by Mr. Miliken and his wife, Joanna Miliken, has been probated at the register and recorder's office. After providing for the erection of a headstone in the Ellwood cemetery and one at the grave of Mr. Miliken's parents at Beakville, Washington county, Pa., it is directed that all property be held by the survivor to the joint will. Upon the decease of the survivor the property is to go to R. F. Miliken and A. O. Miliken, sons, as trustees, by whom it is to be converted into cash for distribution. Special requests are to be paid a daughter, Mrs. James R. Kling for her many acts of "generosity and kindness," also to A. O. Miliken for similar reason and to four daughters-in-law, Alice, Edna, Margaret and Edith, and to William Franklin Miliken, named for his grandfather. The balance of the estate is to be equally divided among the children of deceased.

America, England, Russia and France are more civilized than Japan. They took their share of the war, with very little bloodshed.

SPECIAL WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENT, NEW CASTLE NEWS.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 1.—Twenty-nine New Castle residents had reported incomes of $10,000 or more in 1934, according to an analysis of income tax returns for that year made public today by the secretary of the Treasury.

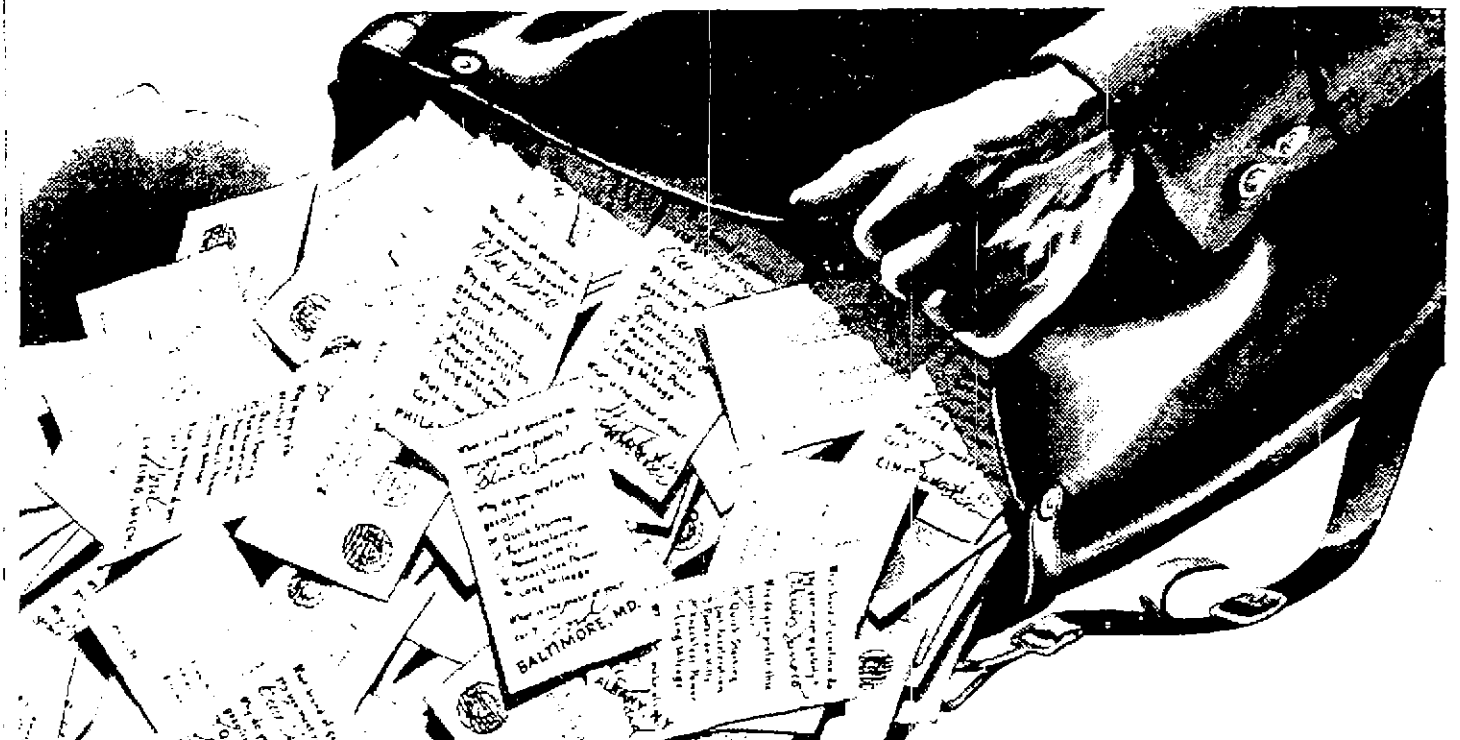

The study, representing the first effort of the Treasury to report on incomes according to local and state figures, is limited to WPA funds. In the past, the breakdown had been limited to state figures. According to the report, 1934 New Castle residents had reported incomes of $10,000 or more in 1934, and 25 reported incomes of $10,000 to $25,000. Other New Castle residents were classified according to income brackets as follows:

America's most critical motorists chose

over all other gasolines!

When you buy a new car, aren't you most critical of anything having to do with its performance? Of course you are. So is every other owner of a new car. This poll among thousands of these critical new car owners gave Blue Sunoco first place; 57.5% over its nearest competitor. Since new cars require a better motor fuel to perform satisfactorily, obviously, Blue Sunoco will surely perform as well—or possibly better—in older cars.

This survey was conducted in 11 eastern states by an independent organization. The replies received were submitted to Lybrand, Ross Brothers and Montgomery, certified public accountants, who prepared the above tabulation therefrom.

Workers Picnic At Park Is Reported Very Much Enjoyed

Any action on the part of the administration in its expressed determination to substitute a public legislative investigation in place of a secret grand jury probe would set the stage for an unprecedented struggle between the state's judiciary and the executive and legislative departments of the state government. Governor Earle has already attacked the judiciary as an attempt to set up a judicial overlordship over the executive and legislative.

In the event Judge Schaeffer does the grand jury probe to continue Attorney General Bard, under another law passed by the legislature, was expected to supersede District Attorney Shelly. An earlier attempt was balked by Judge Schaeffer. The new law provides that Judge Schaeffer, if he so desires, can appoint a district attorney from another county to conduct the probe in the event he considers the attorney general not qualified.

This would probably automatically stay the grand jury investigation until the new prosecutor could familiarize himself with the evidence. In the meantime the state supreme court could rule on the laws' constitutionality.

Pirates And Giants Both Lose Sunday

Pittsburgh Still Has Five-Game Lead, Yanks Win Two And Increase Lead

BROWNS SURPRISE EVERYBODY. WIN TWO

By ANTHONY J. PUGLIESE

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Armed with a two-game lead, the New York Yankees rested today before invading Detroit and Cleveland for the busy week of the American League. The Yankees, who have won eight straight, before moving in on the Indians, who are determined to break the dominance of the Yankees in the widest set of double-headers played this season.

Crucial Series
It is a fair prediction to state that on the outcome of the Cleveland-New York series next week-end rests the pathway to the American League batting.

The Yankees picked up a full game on the Indians, who were raised out of their contest with Washington, by taking a double bill from the Chicago White Sox, 5 to 1 on Monte Pearson's five-hitter, and 7 to 3 in a 15-inning brawl. Spud Chandler held the Sox to eight hits in the nine-inning, while Rube Bressler won with a four-run surge in the 15th.

Browns Win Two
In St. Louis the Browns took a pair from the Boston Red Sox, 7 to 6 and 10 to 2 in a seven-inning game halted by rain. Red Kross hit a homer with the stacks loaded and George McQuinn also hit for the Browns in the ninth. Jimmy Fox blasted out his 29th homer.

The Tigers and Philadelphia Athletics were washed out at the Motor City.
The Pittsburgh Pirates failed to better their league lead by dropping the opener of a scheduled twin bill, 4 to 3, to the Brooklyn Dodgers, while the New York Giants were routed by the Cincinnati Reds, 7 to 6, in 11 frames. The Pirates-Dodgers matchup was rained out. Dopey Camilli's two-run homer proved the margin of victory, while Rookie Johnny Rizzo hit homer No. 10 for Pittsburgh.

Giants Lose
The Giants overcame a 6 to 3 deficit with three in the eighth, but threw the game away in the 11th on two errors.

Danny MacFayden and Lou Fette turned in two stellar mound performances, each pitching the Boston Bees to a 3 to 2 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals. Danny gave eight bingles, while Fette yielded seven.

Bill Averett's 14th inning homer gave the Phillies a 6 to 5 triumph over the Chicago Cubs in the opener, but the Cubs came back to take the nightcap, 4 to 3, in a game curtailed in the seventh by Pennsylvania's curfew law.

LIBERTY GIRLS WIN
The Liberty Stars girls softball team won from the Eastern Star Saturday evening by the score of 20 to 2. N. Russo did the pitching for the Liberty. For games with the Liberty girls call 4915-W and ask for Louis Domenick.

Spectacular fielding by the Tigers kept the Union off the bases. Cliffolla and Shaw did the pitching for the Union. The Tigers had nine hits.

Eight Amateur Battles Tonight

Baby Face Costa Meets Berne Moscati In Grove Street Arena

MICKIE RUBIN MEETS SUIKKKEN

Having been revealed with reports telling of the pugilistic class of Baby Face Costa, the Meadowville, Pa., and Berne Moscati, the Greater Pittsburgh brawler, fans will await their meeting in the last of eight amateur boxing bouts in the Grove street playground, tonight, the last of which will start at 8:30 o'clock.

According to their trainers, Baby Face is one of the sweetest amateur fighters in the 118 pound division; likewise Moscati. Baby Face is said to have practiced the Golden Gloves seminals held in Boston. Moscati is reported to be the best 118 pounder in the Greater Pittsburgh district.

However, they are not the only two of false prominence on the calendar to be presented by the Jefferson A. C. tonight should say not because there is the well known Andy Wertz, of Youngstown, and Muddy Kertz, of Pittsburgh, but also a scrap between Mickie Rubin, the erstwhile playboy of this city, and George Suikkken, Finnish fighter of Youngstown, 175 pounders. Not so long ago Mickie climbed into the ring with Shelton Bell. When the fight was over Bell had registered a technical knockout and Rubin was considered out of the pugilistic limelight. However, a plea for another chance plus a promise to cut out dices and stick to his punching rather than become a man swings, got him another chance.

Leesburg Miner On Card
Another clash that should be productive of punch should come when Lewis Danko, of Youngstown, and Steve Kowalik, of Pittsburgh, 147 pounders meet. Kowalik is said to be one of the better waterweights in Pittsburgh. Danko has held a reputation for being a consistent performer wherever he has fought, hence the anticipation for a whirl of gloves.

Emil Cannell, of the Seventh ward, this city, will receive his pugilistic baptism against Johnny Sutcliffe, of Meadowville, at 126 pounds. This probably will be the first bout of the show and the fans who want to get a line on Cannell will be in their seats when 8:30 p. m. arrives. They are beginners and fans will not expect too much from them.

Charlie Arlett, formerly of West Pittsburgh, will take on George Othous, of Meadowville, at 142 pounds. Arlett is a seasoned veteran of amateur bouts. He has fought most of the junior waterweights in this section. He can hit and is tough. Othous is from the stable of Louis Severo of Meadowville. Severo formerly was managed by Jimmie Dunn, now in California.

There is no more rugged nor gamier kid in the section than Benny Bartle, of Ellwood City, who will meet anybody at his weight, when asked. He is scheduled to take on Al Naples, of Meadowville, who captured a decision from rugged Steve Moran, of Youngstown, not long ago, while the Leesburg miner, Mike Kopernack will fight Phil Flores of Pittsburgh, in a beginners 160 pound tilt.

According to reports by Jefferson A. C. ring officials, an overflow crowd is anticipated. Attendance records have been falling with each succeeding fiscal endeavor and it is anticipated that 1,400 fans will crowd the arena tonight.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Harry Kipke, former Michigan coach, jumped ahead of Indiana's Bo McMillin in the poll to name a coach for the College All Stars who oppose the Washington Redskins, professional football champions, in Chicago, August 31. Kipke has a total of 1,767,852 votes to 1,669,647 for McMillin.

Gerard Podesta, captain-elect of the Princeton tennis team, vanquished Joe Flackback of New York, 6-3, 6-2, 2-6, 6-1, to win the eastern clay court tennis championship in New York City. Podesta succeeded John McDiarmid of Fort Worth, Texas, a tutor at Princeton.

Germany won the European zone Davis cup final from Yugoslavia yesterday in Berlin when Heinrich Henkel, German ace, blasted Josip Palada into defeat, 6-4, 7-5, 6-1, and in Kansas City, Adrian Quidst, Australian Davis cup player, beat Eugenio Tapia of Mexico, 6-1, 6-1, 6-4, in the fourth match of the Australian-Mexican series. Australia had won the series with victories in the first three encounters but yesterday's match was played under Davis cup rules. Australia will meet Japan in the American zone final in Montreal next week.

DE CAPS TO PLAY

DeCapos will play the Red Caps tonight on the B. & O. field. San Angelo or Lavella will hurl for the Bessemer. So far, the DeCapos boast a list of 54 triumphs and 12 losses.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 1.—Johnny Revolta of Evanston, Ill., today jingled $1,600 in his pocket as winner of the St. Paul open golf championship.

Averaging a neat 69 strokes per 18 holes over the 72-hole championship tourney, Revolta turned in one of the stinkiest total scores ever seen here.

Revolta's total of 276 snatched just money from Willie Goggin of San Bruno, Cal., whose deciding putt was just one inch away from the hole for a 277. It was good enough to leave Sam Sneed, the defending champion, two strokes in arrears. A gallery estimated at 10,000 saw Revolta's brilliant four-under-par final round of 68.

Pirates Battling Hard To Win Championship

By ED KIELY
International News Service Sports Writer

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 1.—During the early part of the present baseball campaign, sportsmen appraising the merits of the respective major leagues, had the "Pirates" and "Pirates" but the "goodies" but they were a bunch of playboys who would not be taken seriously by the masses of the season. In short, they were a fourth place club.

As the season opened the Pirates, looking up to all former years and predictions started off with a bang. They led the league for about a week. Then, the "goodies" came along. They began playing in the ball like a high school team playing as though they didn't care which way the game went.

After finishing their first home game, the Pittsburgh Pirates, the records showed, were in fifth place.

All in all, however, the Pirates were having a difficult time. Even though they had a good record, they were not winning. The Pirates were having a difficult time. Even though they had a good record, they were not winning.

Rambling Around World Of Sports

Tales about local "rabid-fans" like countless other communities, villages, and larger cities throughout the nation, New Castle has its share of sports lovers who easily rate a life-long membership in that national order of "rabid fans".... you can have your football fans, boxing addicts, softball lovers, wrestling followers and what not, but there's nothing like a dyed-in-the-wool baseball fan.... the national pastime has an appeal and a certain way of developing this type of fan. Webster tells you "rabid" means furious or violent.... that's exactly what we mean, that type of a baseball fan.... in our community we have a certain group that belongs to that category and no place else.... these type of fans follow their respective teams from New Year's day to New Year's day.... in the summer, they give their ears to a radio, put into a ticker, read a paper from cover to cover, and occasionally desert the dear old city to watch their favorite teams in action.

Introducing some of our rabid fans.... at the top of our order, in a photo finish, comes Tommy Leach and Tony "Kiki" Marino.... it's strictly Pittsburgh all the way through and nothing else has been the Pittsburghers since boyhood to these two south-siders.... they can't see anybody but the Smokey City aggregation.... they feel a defeat as badly as the players themselves.... another fiery Pittsburgh fan is Francis Burgoon, who moved recently to Pittsburgh.... Burgoon spent a few days here this week and displayed his love for the Pirates.... after listening to Pittsburgh win over the Phils, Burgoon remained stationed at a tucker until close of midnight, waiting for the third place Cubs to lose.... the Giants had been defeated in the afternoon and a Cub loss meant a full game to the Phils.... Brooklyn came through in the ninth with a three-run rally, enough to nose out the Cubs.... Burgoon stuck it out until the end, gave a happy shout and left for Pittsburgh.... Sam Marino, who follows baseball as closely as any fan in the city, is heart and soul for the Cleveland Indians.... Marino, now past his seventies, whistles away the afternoons listening to the Indians now down the remaining American League tows.... he knows the history of the Indians backwards, that's how closely he follows happenings along the Indian front.... Clarence Kluber, rates second to Marino.... Kluber actually thinks this is the year for the Indians, and no one can change his mind.... oh yes, the New York Giants have an exceptionally strong rooting section.... there's no use mentioning any other team to Attorney Orville Brown.... Adelman E. J. Bloch, of the Eighth Ward, is another staunch Giant rooter.... at the top of the Yankee rooting section, we must place friend Romeo Cassella, of South Mill street....

The final meeting of the New Castle softball tournament teams will be held at the "Y" on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. It was announced by Franklin R. Chisen, tournament general chairman and chief executive of all softball in New Castle, that the final meeting will be the final night for entering the tournament. Mr. Chisen has named Fred Marcella as chairman of the tournament games, and will be assisted by Bennie Ciccone, Paul Cuba and Frank Leonard. It will be the duty of this quartet to see that all games are played and officiated so that everything is okay.

So far there has been seven teams in the tournament with the possibility that two fast Ellwood City teams will be entered by Danur Schill. Another fast New Castle team is thinking of entering to make it a ten-team tournament.

Huge Crowd Witnesses Ellwood's Greatest Parade Saturday

ELLWOOD CITY, Aug. 1.—All roads led to Ellwood City on Saturday where the final activities of the 3-day Intra National Festival was staged beginning at 2 o'clock with the largest and most outstanding parade ever to have been held in this city.

Early in the day huge crowds began to throng the flag decked streets and when the bands began to begin festivity the streets from the city to Ewing Park were jammed with thousands of sight-seers, who were greatly impressed with the thrilling parade spectacle that required two hours to pass the reviewing stand located in front of the city building. Denny Schill presided as master of ceremonies announcing the various groups headed by the burgess, members of the council and parade committee. Many of the lodges, clubs and drum corps paraded in front of the judges to perform intricate drills. There were fifty pieces of fire apparatus in the parade in addition to dozens of other varied entries. Those who attended the parade know how fine it was and for those who did not, "Grade A" is the synonym that describes it best.

Ball games and concerts occupied the late afternoon and early evening hours. Beginning at 7 o'clock, there was continuous entertainment in front of the Hungarian, Roumanian and Polish. Each of the programs portrayed the native dances and ritual of the country represented and delighted the immense crowd that surrounded the entertainment stand. The Polish folk dances and Roumanian athletic dances received much applause as did the Hungarian wedding ritual. The programs of the various nationalities throughout the three evenings have been especially fine and have received much sincere approval from the large crowds.

Prize winners in the parade were: Bands—New Castle American Legion; Junior Drum & Bugle Corps—Hawthorn Girls Drum & Bugle Corps; Senior Drum & Bugle Corps—Brackentide; Women's Lodges—Orange Ladies Apparatus Coming Longest Distance—Adena, Ohio; Most Men In Line—Tarentum; Best Appearing Apparatus Other Than Pumper—Monaca; Best Heavy Duty Pumper—Tarentum; Best Light Duty Pumper—Rocky Grove.

Work of repairing the First Baptist church, badly damaged by fire early in the spring, is progressing splendidly at the present time with the work of plastering now underway. Members of the church have made tentative plans for occupying the auditorium again the last of October with various classes to be grouped in the basement. Repairs to the Sunday school rooms, which had to be practically rebuilt, will take a longer period for completion.

In a three-game series the Monaca A. C. defeated the Ellwood City team 2 to 1 on Sunday at Ellport. Ellport won the last game 3 to 1. Bishop was the winning pitcher and limited the locals to few hits.

An unusual feature of the Ellwood Festival was the fact that during the three days of activities no disturbances, property damage or stealing were reported to the police department. One man reported that he had lost a pocketbook containing $13.

A large number of special and extra police, including many members of the fire department, were on duty and done an amazing job of keeping the park free of traffic jams.

"There's no hard times in this town," said a manager of a concession sponsored by the local fire department, as large numbers of people stood in line waiting their turns. "This is by far the best town we've had in a long time." he continued, and named various industrial towns of the tri-state area where he decried the company had not met their expenses.

News And Views From Pennsylvania Capital

Gov. Earl's News Service
HARRISBURG, Aug. 1.—In just one short week the special session of the legislature compressed all the action of a long drawn-out regular session. There were three joint sessions and at the end of the first week both houses were in session until five in the morning.

Where the house had been held the attention of those who came from all parts of the state to witness the historic session, the senate on the final day of the week was the sine attraction for those who had come to see the session. The senate had been held in the upper chamber, but on the final day of the week it was held in the lower chamber. Among the senators only those who all to attend were absent.

Over in the executive mansion the busy business also during the week as Gov. George H. Earle waited throughout the week for the special session to start into law his plan to have a grand jury probe of his administration, and substitute for the house. Later in the morning as the bill moved toward enactment, he traveled to the executive offices at the Capitol and there affixed his signature at 5:19 a. m. DST.

More so than at any other time the decisions reached on the floor of the legislature are carried at once to the Democratic caucus. What action the majority Republican bloc should take in the special session is also decided upon in party caucuses, which precedes the opening of each legislative session. Even in the middle of a session a recess may be called in the house and members be advised to assemble in caucuses.

Thus, both parties not only reach united action but what is just as important—namely to the dominant Democratic group—the chances of controversy and disagreement on the floor are lessened. Caucuses are strictly secret and presided over by Democratic State Chairman David L. Lawrence.

Thus when ardent opposition arose among Democratic legislators to the bill calling for public grand jury hearings for public officials, the administration members held a caucus, heard the complaints, and then shivered the bill, probably for good.

Pennsylvania's special session of the legislature is exciting considerable interest outside the state. An example of this comes from Columbus, O., where a paper published a 700-word editorial commenting on it. Chief interest seems to be centered on the action being taken to revise grand jury procedure.

Debate on the bills introduced by the administration to revise the state grand jury procedure focuses attention on the little-known fact that there is seemingly nothing in the legislative laws or constitution of Pennsylvania which sets up a grand jury system. The system, as old as the commonwealth—is based entirely on common law inherited from England.

Governor Earle is known to be greatly pleased by the report of the national safety council, recently released, that Pennsylvania is first in the nation in preventing deaths on the highways. At the end of the first six months of this year Pennsylvania was in the lead with a reduction of 42 per cent compared with the first half of last year. Delaware's highways were the nation's second safest, with a 40 per cent decline.

Next in order were Michigan, Massachusetts, Wisconsin, and Maryland. The last three lying for fourth place. Traffic fatalities in the nation as a whole declined 22 per cent, it was reported, for the first six months of 1938, thus saving 8,670 lives.

Chief credit for Pennsylvania's unique position in highway safety is given to the governor's safety council, headed by Governor Earle and Secretary of Revenue J. Griffith Boardman, and the state's crack state motor police.
